PHO NOODLE SOUP

“Phở” [fuh] is Vietnamese noodle soup made from beef bones and spices, which gets simmered for at least 8 hours. Pho is served with rice noodle and beef or chicken. There are more than one way for you to combine and permute beef cuts to create your Phở noodle soup. Here is our suggestions:

THE BEGINNERS

If this is your first time enjoying Pho, or you simply prefer a tender, lean cut of beef, this is the right choice. The steak or brisket will be slightly cooked by the boiling broth to the perfect “medium” by the time the order reaches your table.
